

HOLIDAY STOCK—STONE & THOMAS.

STONE & THOMAS

OPENING OF OUR BIG

1895 Holiday Stock!

All this week. A dozen average stores' assortment you'll find here under one roof. Rich Cut Glass, Oriental Novelties of almost every description, China, Glassware, Baskets, Books, Toys, Dolls, Games, and thousands of other useful and ornamental presents. See our windows. They speak volumes of the rich accumulation of desirable things to be seen inside at our counters. Our Linen Department is especially attractive as the holiday season approaches. There's money to be saved in that part of the store given over to Linen selling. All the latest and brightest designs and every piece perfect. It's worth a trip, even if you only come to look, and we will be glad to have you.

Transfer Recorded.

Clerk Hook on Saturday admitted to record a deed made November 2, 1895, by J. D. Ewing, trustee, to Charles A. Burdick for 12½ acres of land, part of the Atkinson farm. Consideration, $2,500.

Natural Gas Prices.

The special committee of council appointed to consider the petition of the Natural Gas Company of West Virginia to be allowed to increase price, will hold an adjourned meeting this evening, the outcome of which will be looked for with deep interest.

Sermon to Mechanics.

Yesterday afternoon at Daughters of Liberty hall Rev. A. M. Harvot, of Washington, Pa., who is conducting services in Wheeling, preached to a large congregation made up of United American Mechanics. These services, under the auspices of the Mechanics, will continue every other Sunday during the winter.

Burned by Bursting Cinder Taps.

John Lynch, engineer at the Belmont locomotive, is laid up as the result of a severe accident. While unloading cinder taps the taps burst and burned his feet in a horrible manner. He was taken to his home, where Dr. Taylor attended him. His injuries are not of a very serious nature, but he will be laid up for several weeks.

Typographical Union's Officers.

At the regular meeting yesterday afternoon of the Wheeling Typographical Union, the officers for the ensuing year were elected, as follows: President, I. N. Wycoff; Vice-president, W. E. Plater; Secretary-treasurer, David Deleo; sergeant-at-arms, John Pierce; delegates to the trades assembly, Richard Robertson, Wilbur Carlin, Ned Sims.

The Connellsville Railroad Committee.

The names of the full committee appointed by President Quaker, of the chamber of commerce, to confer with the board of directors of the Wheeling & Connellsville Railroad Company are as follows: P. H. Moore, George B. Caldwell, Col. Thomas O'Brien, W. F. Peterson, Henry Baer, James R. McCourtney, N. B. Scott, John C. Rihl-daffer and F. H. Lange.

A Hungarian Cutting Affray.

Saturday night two Hungarians came here from Mingo, hunting a fellow countryman who had stabbed the brother of one of the men. They said the stabber had come here to go to work in the Riverside works, and Lieut. Supler sent them on down to Benwood. The man who was assaulted was reported to be in a bad way, having been cut three times in the neck and once in the abdomen.

A Serious Accident.

Last evening about 7:30 o'clock Miss Mullen, sister of Rev. Father Mullen, rector of the church of the Immaculate Conception, South Side, was the victim of a serious accident. Miss Mullen is a very fleshy woman, and as she was starting down the stairs at the rectory she stumbled and fell to the floor below. No bones were broken, but she was generally upset by the shock. Dr. J. C. Pipes was called.

The Clever Reilly Coming.

This evening, Tuesday and Wednesday, there comes to the Grand one of Wheeling's greatest favorites, James A. Reilly, supported by a company of exceptional worth. He will present "A German Soldier" and "The Broom Maker," two of the best plays in which he ever appeared. As a singer Mr. Reilly has few equals, and in the character of the careless, happy-go-lucky German lad, he wins the hearts of his audience and holds them until the last. His engagement here will require no boosting to make it a success.

A Meeting of Rare Interest.

The local union meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. will be held in the First Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30. The meeting will be addressed by three seniors of Washington and Jefferson College, students interested in the volunteer mission movement. The names of the young men are: E. A. Hadli, subject, "A Pathetic Appeal"; W. W. Boyd, "Medical Mission"; W. W. Baird, "Go, Let go and Send." The members of the various congregations of the city, and especially the young people, and all Christian workers, will find this to be an occasion of unusual interest and are cordially invited.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

LODGE OF SORROW.

Annual Memorial Services of the Wheeling Lodge of Elks.

LARGE CONGREGATION PRESENT

At the Services in the Second Presbyterian Church last evening—Eloquent Sermon by Rev. A. G. Robb, in Which He Highly Eulogizes the Order—Exalted Ruler Manning's Feeling Remarks on the Losses Sustained During the Year Past—Other Religious Services.

Last evening at the Second Presbyterian church, South Side, occurred the "Lodge of Sorrow," or memorial services to the dead of the order, by Wheeling Lodge No. 25, I. P. O. Elks. The church was crowded with a congregation made up of members of the order and their friends. The services were quite interesting.

Very impressively the Elks and choir rendered the opening ode of the order, as follows:

Great Ruler of the Universe,
Almighty God, we bow before thee,
Look down upon and bless our work,
And be all glory Thine!
Oh! hear our prayers for the honored dead
While bearing in our minds
The memories of each heart,
For Auld Lang Syne.

Rev. A. G. Robb delivered an earnest and eloquent prayer, in the course of which he asked God that the order should prosper and continue its work of charity.

Mr. Charles Zulauf sang "Thy Will Be Done" in a most effective manner.

After the opening ceremonies Rev. A. G. Robb preached an eloquent and powerful memorial sermon, with special reference to the occasion which had brought the congregation together. The blessed and precious memories of our loved ones should always be cherished and quickened year after year at these annual gatherings. The principles of the Elks, "Brotherly Love, Fidelity, Justice and Charity," were spoken of in eloquent terms by the speaker. The death of Rev. Dr. Cooke, of the Second church, who had always been identified with the Elks' services, was the theme of a heartfelt tribute by Mr. Robb.

After a selection by the choir, Exalted Ruler Will H. Manning said that on account of the absence of Exalted John A. Howard, the eulogy on "Our Order" would be dispensed with. Mr. Manning then spoke in an explanatory way of the annual Elks' memorial services, saying that a law of the order is that such services are to be held on the first Sunday in each December, when the members pay their respects to the memory of the dead. Since last year, he said, one member has gone. Brother A. D. Adler, Mr. Adler was an earnest and consistent member of the organization, and although away from Wheeling a great deal, he always maintained his interest in Wheeling Lodge. He also referred feelingly to the death of Dr. Cooke, who, although not a member of the Elks, had come to be generally looked upon as a brother. Just after the memorial services of last December, Dr. Cooke had told him that he had come to think of himself as a fixture in the Elks' memorial services and that it always gave him great pleasure to participate. Wheeling Lodge had sustained a severe loss in his untimely death. Concluding, Mr. Manning said that he hoped the list of deceased members would receive no accessions during the coming twelve months that will elapse before similar services are held.

The dead of the lodge are the following: Samuel A. Miller, R. J. Mansfield, Joseph Melrose, Rufus Wilmarth, Samuel Letkiss, W. M. Davis, Robert B. Simpson and Albert D. Adler, not including Miss Kate Castleton, an honorary member.

After a duet, "Rock of Ages," by Mr. Charles Zulauf and Mrs. George B. Caldwell, prayer by Rev. B. A. Bonnhelm, D. D., concluded the services.

The memorial committee for 1895 was composed of Messrs. C. R. Tracy, Edward C. Seabright, B. F. Horkheimer, M. J. Ward and Max Hess.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS

Being offered by F. W. Hammer & Co., to Piano Purchasers.

We are anxious to extend our business. To widen our "sphere of influence," as the diplomats say. Most of the musical people of Wheeling and vicinity know us—know our business methods and the high class of instruments we handle. But we are not satisfied with that. We want universal recognition of real merit. As a popular means of reaching a desirable end, we have determined to offer extraordinary inducements to our customers during the ensuing ten days. We will do a little profit sharing with the public, and will offer such reductions in prices as will amount to a Christmas gift of substantial size. The offer covers all makes of pianos handled by us, and we handle the best pianos made, and applies equally to low, medium and high priced instruments.

If the idea of buying a piano has been sort of haunting your mind for a while, come in and see us. We'll take a pardonable delight in showing you the latest and finest assortment of instruments ever in Wheeling, and we'll do more and better than that. We'll quote you figures and name terms which will please you as well as the piano will.

THE Buffet will open Tuesday at noon.

THE HUB . Field.

Seems that we have done even better in Overcoats than we thought. The more we see and hear of other stores and stocks the plainer it is. Don't buy blindly. Don't be afraid to come in just to look. Our salesmen are paid salaries—their time is yours—to show or sell—just as you say and the best of it is we have a variety to show, too. Not exaggerating a bit when we say we have as many Overcoats as any three stores have, because we show all the styles. If we took your measure and made them to order we could not give you any better garments. There are no finer fabrics, there are no better trimmings, there could be no more care and pains given to the making. You can see how perfectly they fit—that is the beauty of a readymade coat. You can try them on and see how you like them before you buy them. Another beauty about ours is that nobody could tell whether they are readymade or not—nine out of ten would say not. $5.00 is our lowest price—good Coats—good as any anywhere for $7.00—$25 for our best, and there are none better—none as good, except from the finest tailors, and they double the price. Here full satisfaction or no sale—a word of fault and back goes your money—quick. Don't you like the fairness? Our Coats are as honest as our methods.
